I am a third generation Alaskan and live in my childhood home with my wife Darcel and our three children. My grandparents came to Alaska in 1909 and my grandfather served on the first Anchorage City Council.

Statement:

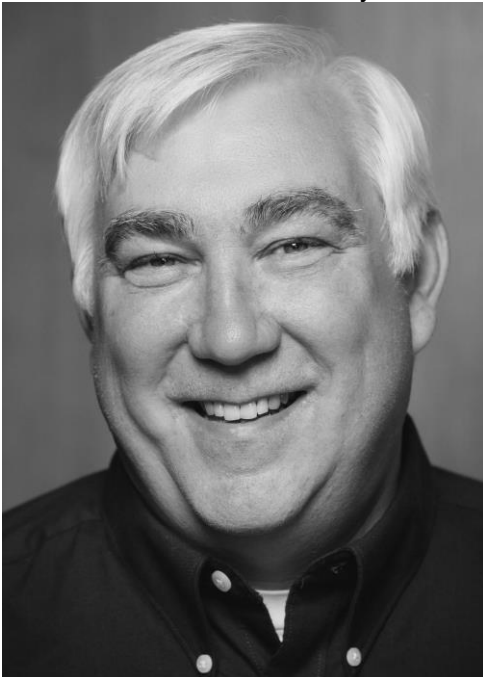

I would be honored to represent our community in the State House. As a lifelong resident of West Anchorage who attended Sand Lake, Mears, Dimond and UAA, I am strongly rooted in our neighborhood and the issues we face together as Alaskans. As a father of three, I want to ensure a prosperous future for Alaska, and I know I can be effective in getting us there.

My education, experience and background have prepared me to serve as an effective legislator in Juneau. I've proven I'm on your side. While working in government, I had the courage to stand up to the Mayor and Governor against the influence of special interest. I fought for a fair valuation of the Trans-Alaska Pipeline and equal treatment for local home and business owners. For this, I sacrificed a 17-year career. All citizens deserve equal treatment and attention, and I will continue to stand up for Alaskans.

As I walk our streets and listen to my neighbors, I hear concerns about our schools, our streets, protection of the permanent fund and fear of future tax increases. People are concerned that lopsided politics are not in the best interest of Alaskans.

I am running for State House because I share these concerns. I am passionate about advancing educational and economic opportunities for Alaskans and am ready to implement creative solutions to bring about change. Together, we can make the owner state work for Alaskans.

I would be honored to earn your vote on Election Day.
